

Naga College Foundation
College of Nursing
Naga City

OPERATING ROOM TECHNIQUE

Name: _____ Year/Section: _____ Date: _____ Rating: _____

INSTRUCTION: Check the performance indicator after the student demonstrated the procedure. LEGEND: 2- Correctly Done 1-Partially Done /Incorrectly Done 0-Not Done

PERFORMANCE INDICATOR	2	1	0	REMARKS
I. KNOWLEDGE (35%)
Long Exam
II.SKILLS ABILITY (35%)
1. Wash hands
2. Wears cap and mask properly
3. Rolls sleeves above elbows.
4. Maintains distance from the edge of sink.
5. Turns on the knee faucet control and regulate its flow.
6. Wet hands to the elbow
7. Wash hands and arms thoroughly to 2" above the elbow with antiseptic agent.
8. Rinse hands thoroughly under running water, keeping hand up and allowing the water to drip from the elbow,
9. Take a sterile brush or sponge from a dispenser.
10. Applies antiseptic agent to the brush or sponge from a dispenser.
11. Starts scrubbing using the brush stoke method, following in circular motion A. Fingernails x 30 strokes B. All sides of fingers x 20 strokes C. Back of the hands x 20 strokes D. Palm x 20 strokes E. Wrist, arm, and one inch above the elbow x 20 strokes per area
12. Finish one arm at a time, then rinse in running water keeping the hands higher than the elbow.

13. Rinse and drop the brush in the sink.
14. Avoid getting contact with object in the sink
15. Keep hands up as you approach the sterile table where the gown is placed.
16. Maintain distance from the edge of the sterile field, then picks up the sterile gown upward from the sterile table
17. Locate the lower part of the gown and pat dry one arm and hand
18. On the other side of the gown, dries the other arm and hand.
GOWNING
19. Make one step backward, moving away from the sterile area.
20. Grasp the folded gown at the neck band.

21. Hold the gown out at arm's length and allow it to unfold naturally
22. The inside of the sterile gown should face(arm holes) the wearer
23. Hold the gown by the open inside shoulder seams and put each hand alternately into the arm holes or simultaneously slip the hands into the arm holes.
24. Extend the arms. Keep hand at shoulder height and away from the body.
25. Circulating nurse, touches the inside of the gown and ties neck, back, and waist band
CLOSED GLOVING
1. Use left hand inside gown to pick up folded edge of the right glove.
2. Hold right hand, palm up, inside gown.
3. Position right glove on the right palm
4. Use right hand inside gown to grasp bottom fold of cuff
5. Use left hand inside gown to pull right glove cuff over right gown cuff.

6. Adjust right glove over right gown cuff.
7. Work right hand into glove.
8. Using gloved right hand, pick up left glove
9. Hold left hand, palm up inside gown
10. Position left glove on left palm
11. Use left hand inside gown to grasp fold of glove cuff
12. Use gloved right hand to grasp top of fold and pull glove cuff over gown cuff
13. Work left hand into glove
14. Turn up and adjust cuff reposition fingers
OPEN GLOVING
1. Open pack by holding the edges/corner, careful enough not to touch the glove
2. Pick up the folded cuff of the left glove using thumb and index finger of the right hand
3. Pull glove into left hand leaving the cuff of the glove turned down
4. Insert gloved left hand on the right glove cuff, slide the right hand inside the right glove
5. Pull the glove into the right hand avoiding inward rolling of the cuff, by rotating the arms, the cuff of gloves is pulled over the sleeves of the gown
6. Place the finger of the gloved right hand under the folded cuff of the left glove, rotate the arm and pull the cuff of the glove over the sleeve of gown
WORKING IN STERILE FIELD IN A STERILE ATTIRE
1. Keep your hands in front of you above the waist level below the shoulders and below the axilla
2. Do not turn your back on sterile field

3. Pass front to front or back to back with others in sterile attire
--	--	--	--	--

4. Change attire when contaminated/wet
REMOVING GOWN AND GLOVES
1. Untie the neck, back and waist
2. Grasp the gown at the shoulders and pulled it over the gloved hand, turning the gown inside out
3. Fold the gown with contaminated surface on the inside
4. Roll the gown and place it in the hamper
5. Grasp the right rolled glove cuff with the left glove hand, and invert the glove as it is pulled
ATTITTUDE(30%)
1. Reports to the skills laboratory on time.
2. Perform the procedure within the allotted time.
3. Accept criticism well and shows effort to improve performance.
4. Answers question politely and tactfully.
5. Observes proper decorum and behaves as a mature student nurse.
6. Should be well groomed and neat, wears complete prescribed uniform.

Student's

Signature overprinted Name

CI's Signature Overprinted Name